

The image displays six identical sets of primary writing lines, arranged vertically. Each set is designed to guide young learners in handwriting practice. It features a wide top line, a middle line, and a bottom line. The top line is decorated with a small flourish at each end. The middle and bottom lines are straight horizontal lines. The bottom line is further decorated with a small square flourish at each end. The entire set is enclosed in a rectangular frame with decorative corner flourishes.